

ASME's International Petroleum Technology Institute is pleased to announce this opportunity to get your ethics training requirement for your PE license renewal!

“Engineering Ethics in Action” Course

Date: Thursday, September 24, 2009

Times: 7:30 AM to 10:30 AM
Breakfast will be provided

Location: Stress Engineering Services Office
13610 Westland East Blvd., Bldg. 2
Houston, TX 77041
<http://www.stress.com/location.php?pid=389>

“Engineering Ethics in Action” is taught by Andrew Taylor, P.E., past chair of the ASME Committee on Ethical Standards & Review. This three-hour class features interactive discussion and a videotape presentation. The content is focused on technical decisions that engineers must make in the workplace.

This course was designed to meet continuing education requirements for all engineers. One three-hour session will provide a licensed engineer with 2 PDH's. For a detailed class description and instructor bio, please see the ASME-IPTI website at: www.asme-ipti.org.

Class space is limited and will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Course Fee: $200

To register online, go to the ASME-IPTI website at www.asme-ipti.org. Click on the “Engineering Ethics in Action” short course link from the home page, under “Upcoming Events”. Feel free to contact Rose Duggan at dugganr@asme.org for further information.

REGISTER NOW!

<https://www.asmeconferences.org/registrations/Login.cfm?ConferenceCode=Ethics0909>